

2024-2025 ADDITIONAL INCOME INFORMATION - Independent Student

STUDENT NAME: _____ BMCC ID: _____

The 2022 income reported on your 2024-2025 FAFSA appears to be insufficient to support your family. In order that we can fully understand your financial situation, and how rent/mortgage, utilities, food, transportation, clothing, etc. are being paid, provide information below about any income earned from work, as well as any other income or financial support received.

>> Fill in the tables below for your household. Include information about all household members: you, your spouse, significant other/partner, boyfriend/girlfriend, fiancé/fiancée, relative, friend, etc. who is living in the household.

Type of income/financial support: income earned from work, unemployment, cash support, child support, alimony, refunded federal/state financial aid, refunded scholarships, Veteran’s education benefits (BAH), Veteran’s non-education benefits, military housing allowance, housing assistance (HUD), Medicaid, SNAP, TANF, WIC, Free and Reduced School Lunch, untaxed Social Security benefits, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), disability payments, Workman’s Compensation, etc.

2023 (January 1 - December 31)

Household Member Name	Type of Income/Financial Support (work, unemployment, SNAP, TANF, etc.)	Total Amount received in 2023
		$
		$
		$
		$
		$
		$

2024 (January 1 - December 31)

Household Member Name	Type of Income/Financial Support (work, unemployment, SNAP, TANF, etc.)	Total Amount received in 2024
		$
		$
		$
		$
		$
		$

Student Signature: _____ Date: _____