Purpose/Principle/Definitions:

Student Clubs are an integral part of student engagement and life at the College and are for the purpose of enhancing co-curricular student activities. Clubs are made available to students as a way to provide cultural, civic, service, recreational, social, and leadership opportunities for BMCC students.

BMCC Club Advisors are full-time employees (non-students) that serve in an advisory capacity to a club's membership. The club advisor provides oversight to club activities, programs, and student club membership assuring that programming and activities conform to the educational purposes, values, and policies of the college. Serving as a club advisor is considered voluntary. College employees may be offered release time (with supervisor approval) to serve in the role of Club Advisor.

Procedures:

All student clubs at BMCC must have an approved full-time college employee in the role of Club Advisor before becoming officially sanctioned as an Associated Student Government (ASG) sponsored student club. Advisors are approved on an annual basis during Fall term.

- 1) The criteria for Club Advisor approval includes:
 - Must be a full-time college employee past their probationary period
 - Must have immediate supervisor approval to and ability to serve for one academic year
 - Not already serving as a Club Advisor for two clubs (college employees may serve as a Club Advisor for a maximum of two clubs at a time)

- 2) The selection process for Club Advisor is as follows:
- Student(s) interested in forming a club will contact the Student Life Coordinator for a list of available college employees indicating an interest in serving as a club advisor.
 - Student(s) may also bring a recommendation to the Student Life Coordinator for a specific college employee to serve as their club advisor.
 - Student(s) contact the college employee about serving in the Club Advisor role.
 - If the college employee is interested in and available to serve as a Club Advisor, they then complete the Club Advisor Assignment form and return to the Student Life Coordinator. .
 - In the case of some student club organizations (such as Phi Theta Kappa), the selection of a Club Advisor will be made by the Office of Instruction or Office of Student Affairs.

Club Advisor Roles and Responsibilities:

A student Club Advisor provides important assistance to the club's student leaders assisting with the accomplishing of goals while helping enrich the personal and social development of students involved in student activities. It is expected that Club Advisors will commit two to five hours per week for involvement with their club. Responsibilities may include but are not limited to:

- Commitment of a minimum of one academic year as the advisor to any particular club
- Guide the club members in establishing and maintaining of club charter, guidelines, goals, roles, and objectives in accordance with ASG constitution and by-laws
- Attend club functions, programs, and meetings to supervise and maintain college facilities use (as time and scheduling allow)
- Assists the club in planning, supervising, and evaluating efforts of the club to provide meaningful social, cultural, and recreational opportunities within the club purposes
- Promotes dialogue between club membership and college administration, the student body, and the college community
- In coordination with the Director of Athletics, Outreach, & Student Life, assist's club members with any behavioral issues or conflicts among club members or that might arise at a club sponsored activity or event
- Act as a resource for general information regarding college policies and procedures, including student rights, responsibilities, and conduct
- Provide oversight and counsel regarding the financial transactions of the club. Specifically, to prevent the club from incurring debts that it is unable to pay and ensure that expenditures are within appropriate spending guidelines
- To ensure that all reasonable steps are taken to protect the safety and welfare of club members and ensure all college policies are upheld at all times
- Under the direction of the Student Life Coordinator, co-sign all club payment forms, facilities requests, work orders, and fundraising requests as initiated by club members
- Ensures that the brand of the college is upheld at all times with events, social media and any marketing that should need to happen for the club

Note: Club Advisors may not financially profit from a student club.

Resolving Concerns or Mid-Year Club Advisor Changes:

- 1) Club advisors and club members are encouraged to first discuss their concerns in order to find a workable solution. If this is not possible, the next step is for the club members or club advisor to meet with the Student Life Coordinator for assistance.
- 2) Club advisors needing to step down from his/her duties mid-year are expected to notify the club's leadership as well as the Student Life Coordinator. It is the responsibility of club members to find another college employee willing to serve in this capacity for the remainder of the academic year. A club cannot be active without an approved Club Advisor.
